LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.
Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-my1 W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(1.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the day and boarding school now carried on in the County of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, under the style or firm of "Norfolk House," and all or any of the assets and liabilities of the proprietor of that school in connection therewith, and with a view thereto to enter into the agreement with Dora W. Atkins referred to in clause 4 of the Company's articles of association, and to carry the same into effect with or without modification:

(2.) To carry on in the County of Victoria aforesaid, or elsewhere in the said Province, the said school and any other day and (or) boarding-school where students may obtain a sound classical, scientific, mathematical, and general education of the highest order, and for such purpose to adapt and use the said school or any lands, buildings, and premises that may be requisite:

(3.) To establish, build, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to adapt, alter, improve, equip, furnish, maintain and manage, residential houses, boarding-houses, laboratories, lecture and demonstration rooms and halls, class-rooms, libraries, and reading or recreation rooms, gymnasia, tennis-courts, racquets and fives courts, athletic grounds, playing-fields, and all such other establishments, accessories, and premises as may be considered necessary or suitable for or incidental to any such school:

(4.) To provide courses of instruction in all branches of a liberal education, including morals, ethics, and religion, and to arrange for the delivery and holding of lectures, exhibitions, classes, and conferences calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the cause of education, or conduce to the welfare of the students attending such school:

(5.) To enter into an agreement or arrangement with any Board of School Trustees, or any City or Municipal Council, or Provincial Department of Education, or any university or other body in charge of or concerned in any branch of public education in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, whereby the Company may undertake the conduct of any part of the educational work for the time being carried on by such body or authority upon such terms as may from time to time be decided:

(6.) To provide for the examination from time to time of any such students by approved examiners or examining bodies; to give certificates to successful candidates, and to present such scholarships, prizes, and pecuniary or other awards as shall facilitate or encourage proficiency in the subjects taught or courses provided, as well as industry and good behaviour:

(7.) To make and enforce all such general rules, orders, and regulations as may be necessary or proper to maintain discipline and carry on effectually the work of such school:

(8.) To determine and exact such tuition fees, rates, and charges for board and other services provided as the directors of the Company may think fit to impose:

(9.) To promote and carry on a girl-guides' troop or organization for physical training, and all such summer and winter sports or pastimes as may be deemed suitable; and to arrange competitions, games, and sports of any (or all) kind; to grant or contribute towards prizes, awards, and distinctions in connection therewith, and to do or provide for all acts and things necessary for and incidental to the proper care and management of the same:

(10.) To purchase, hire, or otherwise acquire books, periodicals, stationery, scientific and other instruments and apparatus, and generally all such educational, athletic, and other supplies and equipment necessary or suitable for any such school, and to utilize, sell, turn to account, let out on hire, or otherwise deal with or dispose of same:

(11.) To engage masters, tutors, managers, and agents:

(12.) To effect such insurance in relation to the carrying on of the Company's business, and any risks incidental thereto as may seem expedient, and to insure the lives of any of its managers, directors, or employees for the Company's own benefit:

(13.) To purchase, acquire and deal in goods, wares, merchandise, and chattels of whatever nature including all kinds of stores and provisions required by teachers, students, and employees attending such school or residing therein, and to sell or dispose of or distribute the same or any part thereof to or among the members of the Company or any persons or bodies corporate:

(14.) To adopt such means of making known any such school as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, and by publication of papers or periodicals:

(15.) To do all such things as the Company may think incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

(c.) To carry on all or any of the businesses of house decorators, contractors, builders, auctioneers, valuers, cabinetmakers, reconditioners, upholsterers, furniture-removers, owners of depositories, warehousemen, carriers, storekeepers, warehouse-keepers, commission agents, buying and selling:

(d.) To receive valuables, goods, and materials of all and every description for exhibition, display, or safe custody:

(e.) To adopt as a means of making known any of the goods or rights in which the Company may be dealing or interested any form of advertising, including radio broadcasting or other form of radio development, or by means of mechanical or scientific models or appliances, or the giving of lectures or exhibitions, or the employment of canvassers or agents:

(f.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and to sell, exchange, surrender, lease, mortgage, charge, convert, turn to account, dispose of, and deal with property and rights of all kinds, and in particular land, buildings, mortgages, debentures, produce, concessions, options, contracts, patents, copyrights, annuities, licences, stocks, shares, bonds, policies, book debts, business concerns and undertakings, claims, privileges, and choses in action of all kinds:

(g.) To develop and turn to account any land acquired by the Company or in which it is interested, whether as agent or otherwise, by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, filling up, and improving buildings and conveniences, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or letting or selling on building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(h.) To employ experts to investigate and examine into or otherwise to investigate the condition, prospects, value, character, and circumstances of any business concerns and undertakings, and generally of any assets, property, or rights:

(i.) To sell any property of the Company or in which it may be interested, as agent or otherwise, on instalment payments or otherwise:

(j.) To make donations to such persons and in such cases and either of cash or assets as may seem expedient, and to subscribe for any purposes, whether charitable or benevolent or for any public, general, or useful objects, or to any association, institution, or company that may be thought by the Company calculated to benefit the Company, or persons employed by the Company or persons having dealings with the Company:

(k.) To subscribe for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and hold, sell, dispose of, and deal in, shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, contracts, mortgages, charges, obligations, and securities of any company, or for any authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), or of any persons whomsoever, whether incorporated or not:

(l.) To carry on business as factors, brokers, and commission merchants, distributing agents, manufacturers' representatives, and exhibitors:

(m.) To deal in, buy, sell, rent, let, manufacture, and exchange musical instruments of all kinds, including radios and phonographs, their parts, supplies, and accessories, and to install, repair, equip, and maintain the same:

(n.) To acquire any property or goods subject to any mortgage charge or lien, and to sell and transfer or let or hire goods, properties, or rights on any terms of payment, whether involving the obtaining of a lien or charge or not, and to deal with, sell, turn to account, or release any such charge or lien:

(o.) To provide and conduct refreshment-rooms and other conveniences for the use of customers and others, and to conduct and hold amusements for the enjoyment of customers and others:

(p.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any business and its assets, stock-in-trade, and good-will, the acquisition of which may be deemed by the Company to benefit the Company, and to assume all the liabilities of such business.

It is hereby declared that in the interpretation of each paragraph of this clause the meaning of any of the Company's objects as expressed shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not restrict the powers of the Company.
